Register on August 24, 1995 (60 FR 44079).

New information received from the company shows that some of the workers at Maxus Energy Corporation had their unemployment insurance (UI) taxes paid to Maxus Corporate.

Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to properly reflect this matter.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Maxus who were affected by increased imports of crude oil and natural gas. The amended notice applicable to TA–W–31,268 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Maxus Energy Corporation, a/k/a Maxus Corporate, Dallas, Texas who become totally or partially separated from employment on or after June 30, 1994, are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 24th day of October 1995.

Russell T. Kile,

Acting Program Manager, Policy and Reemployment Services, Office of Trade Adjustment Assistance.

Pendleton Woolen Mills, Inc. Milwaukie, Oregon; Amended Certification Regarding Eligibility To Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance

In accordance with Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2273) the Department of Labor issued a Certification of Eligibility to Apply for Worker Adjustment Assistance on September 13, 1995, applicable to all workers of Pendleton Woolen Mills, Inc., Milwaukie, Oregon. The notice was published in the Federal Register on September 26, 1995 (60 FR 49635).

At the request of the union, the Department reviewed the certification for workers at the subject firm. New information provided by the company reveals that worker separations at the subject facility are not limited to those workers producing ladies' blouses. New findings show employment declines have occurred for workers producing men's shirts at the Milwaukie, Oregon plant.

The intent of the Department's certification is to include all workers of Pendleton Woolen Mills adversely affected by increased imports of apparel. Accordingly, the Department is amending the certification to expand coverage to all workers of the subject firm in Milwaukie, Oregon.

The amend notice applicable to TA–W–31,359 is hereby issued as follows:

"All workers of Pendleton Woolen Mills, Inc., Milwaukie, Oregon who became totally or partially separated from employment on or after August 9, 1994 are eligible to apply for adjustment assistance under Section 223 of the Trade Act of 1974."

Signed at Washington, D.C. this 25th day of October 1995.
